ABOUT KEVIN: Kevin Lowry is a convert to Catholicism and the son of a former Presbyterian minister. He and his wife Kathi met at Franciscan University, where they discovered the richness and beauty of the faith. After spending time as spiritual nomads, the couple met Scott and Kimberly Hahn, and faced the inevitable. They entered the Catholic Church at Easter Vigil, 1992.

Kevin and Kathi have eight children and live in the Columbus, Ohio area. Kevin was with a large CPA firm for many years before taking on various executive roles, and now serves as Chief Operating Officer of The Coming Home Network International, an apostolate that assists non-Catholic clergy and laity on the journey to the Catholic Church and beyond.

The story of Kevin’s conversion appears in Patrick Madrid’s popular book Surprised by Truth 2 and is entitled “Son of a Preacher Man.” His first book, entitled “Faith at Work: Finding Purpose Beyond the Paycheck” has just been released by Our Sunday Visitor and is now available! It’s about integrating faith, family, and work, and discovering new purpose by striving for holiness through the everyday situations we experience in our workplaces.

Kevin serves on the Board of Directors for Our Sunday Visitor and the Columbus chapter of Legatus.

ABOUT THE BOOK: Kevin’s first book, Faith at Work: Finding Purpose Beyond the Paycheck has just been released by Our Sunday Visitor.

Faith at Work encourages Catholics – and all Christians – to fully integrate faith into our everyday work lives. By doing so, we are able to discover greater purpose in our work experiences and draw closer to Christ, while sanctifying each work day and acting as a source of grace for others. In today’s work environments, we have an unparalleled opportunity to reflect Christ’s light in practical ways, such as treating others with dignity, handling adversity with grace, and applying a long-term (eternal!) perspective to everyday situations. Through our faithfulness in even small matters (for example, commenting positively about our spouse to a co-worker) the Holy Spirit can use our daily work to transform lives.

Faith at Work* will be available for purchase at the presentation at Gilmary and Kevin will be available to autograph copies.
